5 <sup>10</sup>My enemy, grown strong in pride,
<sup>11</sup>Would take my life away,
<sup>12</sup>A lion lurking by my side,
Most greedy for his prey.
<sup>13</sup>Confront and cast him down, O LORD,
From evil save me by Thy sword.

6 <sup>14</sup>Defend me from the men of pride,
Whose portion is below,
Who, with life's treasures satisfied,
No better portion know;
They, with earth's joys and wealth content,
Must leave them all when life is spent.

7 <sup>15</sup>When I in righteousness at last
Thy glorious face shall see,
When all the weary night is past,
And I awake with Thee
To view the glories that abide,
Then, then I shall be satisfied.
