

1. The wick-ed, watch-ing for their prey, De-sire the right-eous man to slay,
2. Wait on the Lord and keep His way; He will ex-alt thee, nor de-lay
3. The wick-ed in great pow'r are seen, Like spread-ing tree with fol-iage green
4. Mark thou the up-right day by day, Be-hold the per-fect in his way:
5. Sal-va-tion is from God a-lone, Whom as their cov-ert saints have known

But God is on his side; He will not leave him in their hands,
To give the land to thee; And when the wick-ed are cut off,
That grows in na-tive ground. I looked a-gain, they were no more;
His jour-ney ends in peace. De-stroyed at once shall reb-els be;
When by sore troub-les tried; The Lord Who helped in troub-les past

Nor count him guilt-y when he stands In judg-ment to be tried.
The wick-ed who a-gainst thee scoff, Their judg-ment thou shalt see.
I sought the men so proud be-fore, But they could not be found.
Cut off from all pos-ter-i-ty, Their ver-y name shall cease.
Will save them to the ver-y last, For they in Him con-fide.
