A Wicked Life

PSALM 36 C. M.

CHIMES

Lowell Mason

1 The tres-pass of the wick-ed man Most plain-ly tes-ti-fies

That fear of God's most ho-ly Name Is not be-fore his eyes.

2 He cherishes the empty hope,
Although his sin be great,
It never shall be brought to light
And viewed with righteous hate.

3 The words he utters with his mouth
Are wickedness and lies;
He keeps himself from doing good,
And ceases to be wise.

4 While on his bed his thought he gives
To planning wickedness;
He sets himself in evil ways,
He shuns not to transgress.

The Love and Justice of God

PSALM 36 C. M.

CADD0

William B. Bradbury

1 Thy mer-cy and Thy truth, O Lord, Tran-scend the loft-y sky;

Thy judg-ments are a might-y deep, And as the moun-tains high.

[Stanzas 5-10]

The Love and Justice of God

| 2 Lord, Thou preservest man and beast;
 Since Thou art ever kind,
 Beneath the shadow of Thy wings
 We may a refuge find. | 4 The fountain of eternal life
 Is found alone with Thee,
 And in the brightness of Thy light
 We clearly light shall see. |
| 3 With the abundance of Thy house
 We shall be satisfied,
 From rivers of unfailing joy
 Our thirst shall be supplied. | 5 From those that know Thee may Thy
 And mercy ne'er depart, [love
 And may Thy justice still protect
 And bless the upright heart. |
- 6 The workers of iniquity
 Are fallen utterly;
 They shall not triumph in their pride,
 Or drive my soul from Thee.

An Answer to Distrust

PSALM 37 C. P. M.

JOSEPHINE

Ernest R. Kroeger

1 Fret not thy-self, nor en-vi-ous be, When wick-ed work-ers thou shalt see,
 Who pros-per in their way; For like the grass they per-ish soon,
 And, like the herb cut down at noon, They with-er in a day.

| 2 Trust in the Lord and still do well,
 Within the land securely dwell,
 Feed on His faithfulness;
 Delight thee also in the Lord,
 And to thy heart He will accord
 The good it would possess. | 3 Yea, to the Lord thy way is known;
 Confide in Him Who on the throne
 Abides in power divine;
 Thy righteousness He shall display;
 Resplendent as the light of day,
 It shall unclouded shine. |
