The Perfect Law of God

PSALM 19 H. M.

HADDAM

Arranged by Lowell Mason

[Stanzas 5-9]

2 The Lord's commands are pure,
They light and joy restore;
Jehovah's fear is clean,
Enduring evermore;
His statutes, let the world confess,
Are wholly truth and righteousness.

3 They are to be desired
Above the finest gold;
Than honey from the comb
More sweetness far they hold;
With warnings they Thy servant guard,
In keeping them is great reward.

4 His errors who can know?
Cleanse me from hidden stain;
Keep me from wilful sins,
Nor let them o'er me reign;
And then I upright shall appear
And be from great transgressions clear.

5 When Thou dost search my life,
May all my thoughts within
And all the words I speak
Thy full approval win.
O Lord, Thou art a rock to me,
And my Redeemer Thou shalt be.

| 2 They speak not with audible word,
Yet clear is the message they send;
Their witness goes out through the earth,
Their word to the world's farthest end. 3 Forsaking his tent in the sky,
Arrayed as a bridegroom, the sun | Comes forth in his glorious strength,
Rejoicing his circuit to run. 4 He tells through the length of the heavens
His Maker's great wisdom and might,
And nothing in all of the earth
Is hid from his heat and his light. |

| 2 His precepts are righteous and just,
Rejoicing the heart and the mind;
And all His commandments are pure,
Enlightening the eyes of the blind. 3 The fear of the Lord is most clean,
Forever unmoved it has stood;
His judgments are perfectly true,
In all things most righteous and good. 4 Such treasure no gold can supply,
Such sweetness no honey afford; | Their warnings none heed and obey
But find most abundant reward. 5 O who can his errors discern? [free;
From hidden faults, Lord, keep me
Let pride never reign in my heart,
And clear of great sin I shall be. 6 I pray that my words and my thoughts
May all with Thy precepts accord,
And ever be pleasing to Thee,
My Rock, my Redeemer, my Lord. |
