 and the wid - ow, Mur - der - ing the fa - ther - less.
 teach - es know - ledge, Will he not chas - tise - ment bring?
 not his peo - ple; He will not his own for - sake.

<sup>3</sup>LORD, how long shall wick - ed men, how Long shall <sup>7</sup>Yet, they say, "The LORD sees noth - ing; Ja - cob's
<sup>11</sup>Thoughts of man the LORD knows ful - ly, Know that <sup>15</sup>Righ - teous judg - ments will be ren - dered, Jus - tice

wick - ed men ex - ult? <sup>4</sup>Ar - ro - gant, their God does not have eyes." <sup>8</sup>Un - der - stand, O but a breath are they. <sup>12</sup>Blest the man, O will a - gain re - turn. Those of up - right words out - pour - ing, E - vil men, who taunt and gloat.

 fool - ish peo - ple! When, O fools, will you be wise?
 LORD, Thou chast - 'nest, Teach - est him to know Thy way.
 heart will fol - low And the way of jus - tice learn.

5. <sup>16</sup>Who will rise for my deliv'rance,
 Stand for me against the foe?
<sup>17</sup>If the LORD were not my helper,
 Soon my soul would silence know.
<sup>18</sup>If I say, "My foot is slipping!"
 LORD, Thy mercy will uphold.
<sup>19</sup>When my heart is filled with burdens,
 How Thy comforts cheer my soul!

6. <sup>20</sup>Can the wicked princes join Thee,
 Who by law injustice frame?
<sup>21</sup>They conspire against the righteous,
 Death to upright ones proclaim.
<sup>22</sup>But the LORD is still my stronghold;
 God, my refuge, God, my rock
<sup>23</sup>He repays the evildoers;
 God the LORD will wipe them out.
