

1. Who, O Lord, shall dwell with Thee In the tem-ple of Thy grace?
2. He who walks in right-eous-ness, All his ac-tions just and clear;
3. He to whom does not be-long Tongue of mal-ice or de-ceit;
4. Who the wick-ed man will spurn, Hon-or those that fear the Lord;
5. Who no u-su-ry will claim, Nor with bribes pol-lute his hand:

Who Thy con-stant guest shall be In Thy high and ho-ly place?
He whose words the truth ex-press, Spo-ken from a heart sin-cere.
Who will not his neigh-bor wrong, Nor a slan-derous tale re-peat.
Nor will from his prom-ise turn Tho' but loss be his re-ward.
He who thus his life shall frame Shall un-moved for-ev-er stand.

